DEVINE ATTACK ON UNIVERSITY GIVEN SUPPORT

The House Overrides Its Committee's Report Against His Bill

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—(AP)—The House today upheld Rep. John Devine, Dixon Democrat, and ordered that his bill to place University of Illinois funds under the control of the State Treasurer should be placed on the calendar ready for further consideration.

By a rising vote of 61 to 56, the House overrode the recommendation of its Revenue committee that the bill should be killed.

Heated debate over university finances came as a sequel to charges made in the House recently that the University Trustees have been extravagant and incompetent in spending tax money.

Devine's speech demanding closer supervision of university expenditures was answered by Schaffer O'Neill of Alton, Revenue chairman, and Roger Little, Urbana Republican.

Defeat Recommended

O'Neill's committee yesterday recommended defeat of the bill after a hearing at which Dr. Harry Woodburn Chase, President of the University, and members of the Board of Trustees appeared.

"Either the faculty is incompetent or the money was wasted," declared Glenn N. Sunderland, Newton Republican and an alumnus of the university, in discussing charges made by Devine recently that more than $200,000 had been spent from contingent funds in building a new home for the president.

"The real power that guides the destiny of our great school is neither voters, trustees nor president," declared Glenn N. Sunderland, Newton Republican and an alumnus of the university, in discussing charges made by Devine recently that more than $200,000 had been spent from contingent funds in building a new home for the president.

TWO INNOCENT WOMEN VICTIMS GANG'S GUNFIRE

Three Autos Figured In Battle In New York's Broadway

New York, May 25.—(AP)—Gang gunners struck down two innocent women today in a skirmish that threw Broadway into a shrieking panic.

The women one of whom may die, were dropped in the street by slugs from automatic shotguns when two carloads of hoodlums, racing south toward the white light area, poured a fusillade into a third automobile.

The target car, spitting gunfire, careened around a corner and crashed into an iron fence and, two men, trailing blood, were seen to tumble from it and limp quickly away. The shattered car, its tonneau ripped and blood-stained, was registered in the name of Edward Rosen, but at a Bronx house given as his address he was not known.

Sadie Fortune, 45, was walking in Broadway near 81st street when a slug struck her in the back.

Doctors found her condition critical.

Irene Savage, 24, dropped with a bullet wound in her shoulder.

Walter O'Donnell of Harnett, N. Y., had a slug graze his head, knocking him down.

Roars from an automobile exhaust signalled the start of the fight. Passersby saw three racing cars, one sandwiched between two. From the two outside cars, bullets flashed at the one in the middle.

Eleven slugs punctured it before it escaped around the corner. In the tonneau were found two pearl gray fedoras, one of them bearing a Newark, N. J., store label.

Two Sterlingites Sentenced To Jail

FREEPORT—Two Sterling residents, Jack Sporn and Gilbert Knapp, convicted of charges of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, were sentenced by Judge Charles Woodward in Federal court. Sporn was fined $5,000 and sentenced to prison for two years, while Knapp was sent to jail for a year and a day.

Light Of Star, Forty Years On Way To Earth, Will Open Chicago's Big Fair Saturday

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—Folks who for months have been discussing how light from the star Arcturus is going to "push the button" to open the Century of Progress Exposition Saturday got something of an idea last night as to how that little beam is going to do its stuff.

It was at a demonstration of electrical magic in fantastic Electricity Hall, where W. A. Glushko of a research laboratory made electrons do all manner of visual and tonal acrobatics. They even played a phonograph record, undulations of the disc determining intensity and dimming of current and relaying the tone to the photo-electric cell.

PROGRESS ON BRIDGE

Contractors are making rapid progress in placing the steel for the new bridge across Franklin creek west of Franklin Grove. The long steel trusses were brought to Franklin Grove from Milwaukee on motor trucks and have been placed in position. It is expected that the steel work will be completed this week but it will be several days before the structure can be thrown open to traffic as a concrete floor is to be placed across the bridge.

ANGLER RESCUED

Jack "Amos" Wilson, this city, was pulled out of Rock river near Grand Detour Tuesday afternoon. He was angling along Rock river and ventured out on a fallen tree and missed his footing and fell into the water. SALES TAX REFUNDS

In another column Montgomery Ward and Co. announced that all the sales tax money collected at the Dixon store will be refunded by purchasers who can show sales checks but that all tax money remaining in their possession at the close of business July 1 will be turned over to the Dixon Welfare association.

It is to be hoped that all Lee county merchants will donate their un-called for 3 per cent tax collections to some form of local charity. That is what it was intended for when the tax was imposed. In Dixon the money should be given either to the Community Kitchen or the Dixon Township unemployment relief commission. Donations to the Kitchen may be given to Frank Stephan at the Loan and Building Association. Donations to the township unemployment relief may be

SITTING JUDGES DESERVE ELECTION

VOTERS SHOULD REWARD HONEST SERVICE JUNE 5

Justice Heard and Judges Edwards, Emerson, Heer Capable

A most important duty devolves upon the voters at the coming Judicial election on June 5th. Heretofore there has been some indifference toward elections of this character because men are rarely elected to high judicial offices until they have established by experience their qualifications for such positions. Judicial elections should be removed from partisan politics, but unfortunately under our system of government elections of that character have been provided. In the federal court the judges are appointed for life so that they may administer their offices free from all partisan influences of every kind.

The candidates of the Republican party at the coming election are men of experience and ability. They have served faithfully and well and are entitled to the support of the voters of this district.

Hon. Oscar E. Heard

Honorable Oscar E. Heard, candidate for the Supreme Court, was admitted to practice law in the State of Illinois in 1872. He afterwards served as State's Attorney of Stephenson county, as judge of the Circuit Court of this district and of the Appellate Court of Illinois. For many years he was a member of the Board of Governors of the Illinois State Bar Association and was elected to the Supreme Court of Illinois in 1924, where he served as Chief Justice for two terms. If Judge Heard had so desired he might have retired six years ago, and under the laws of the State of Illinois, he would have been entitled to a pension of $7,500.00 per year. In the event of his retirement on a pension the Judge who served would have been entitled to a salary of $15,000.00 per year. Judge Heard has thus saved the tax payers of Illinois more than $45,000.00 by continuing to serve when he might have accepted his pension and engaged in private practice and earned a considerably greater amount of compensation. The tax payers will save an additional $7,500.00 per year by the re-election of Judge Heard, because if he is defeated or if he retires he will be entitled to a pension and the Judge who succeeds him will be entitled to the regular salary. This feature alone, in view of the splendid qualifications of Judge Heard justifies his return to the position which he has so ably filled. His entire record as a judge on the Supreme Bench has been without criticism.

Hon. Harry Edwards

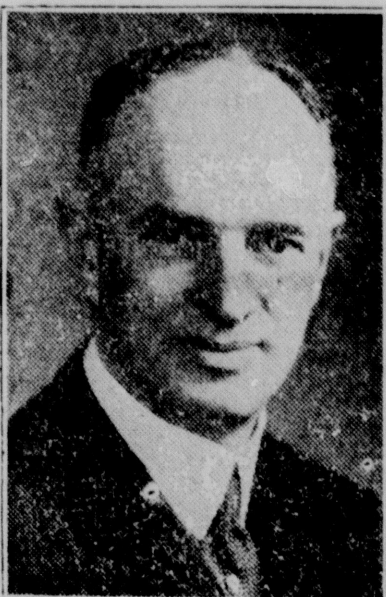

Lee County is proud of its candidate for the Circuit Bench, Judge Harry Edwards, the present incumbent, has lived in Lee County for many years. He served as State's Attorney from 1908 until 1920 when he was elected to the Circuit Bench where he has since served faithfully and capably. He was elevated to the Appellate Court in April, 1931, and is now serving not only as a Judge of the Circuit Court of this district, but is also one of the Judges of the Appellate Court for the Fourth district of Illinois, which holds court at Mt. Vernon. He has frequently been called upon to act as Judge in other districts of the state, where matters of great public interest and importance have been involved. In 1923 during the celebrated vice cases which arose in Rock Island county, in connection with the Looney investigation, he served for six weeks as presiding judge in the criminal cases which followed and his capable work at that time brought much favorable comment from the press not only of Rock Island county, but throughout the state of Illinois. In 1931 during the famous controversy in which the United Mine Workers of America were interested parties, Judge Edwards served as trial judge in cases which were tried at Springfield, and which aroused nation-wide interest. At the conclusion of the trial his opinion met with the approval of all parties interested, who recognized it as a just, fair and impartial decision. The voters of this district will make no mistake by returning Judge Edwards to the position which he seeks. He has been doing double duty in serving both as Circuit Judge and as an Appellate Judge and his opinions have almost invariably met with the approval of the Supreme Court in cases of appeal.

Hon. W. J. Emerson

Judge Emerson of Ogle county was admitted to the bar in 1894. He had previously served as Deputy Circuit Clerk of Ogle county, and was City Attorney of Oregon for several years. Like Judge Edwards he served as State's Attorney of Ogle County from 1908 until 1920, and afterwards served as Master-in-Chancery. The resignation of Judge Stransky left a vacancy to which Judge Emerson was elected.

Past, Present, Infinity Shown In Chicago's Fair

Chicago, May 25.—(AP)—When the 1933 World's Fair portals swing open Saturday to the public it will be like the unveiling of a master artist's painting depicting his conception of past, present and infinity.

Even the creators of this exposition of the flight of a Century of Progress are unable to grasp what they have done. The World's Fair is as near a model of infinity—unlimited, boundless something—unlike man's hands have ever molded.

The makers of this fantastic panorama never have said this World's Fair would be the biggest thing ever.

He's a few figures:

$26,000,000 has been poured into the multi-colored rectangularity of the buildings.

$6,000,000 worth of exhibits have been carted from all over the world into the three and a half mile long enclosure.

1,500 workmen of late have been laboring daily on the construction and are now at the final priming.

85 separate exhibition buildings have been erected.

82 miles of exhibit must be traversed if the visitor expects to glance at the fair.

50,000,000 persons is the officials' conservative estimate of visitors.

Therefore, Montgomery Ward & Co. will refund the sales tax paid on all purchases made in Ward's stores since April 1, 1933.

In order to receive this refund please present your sales checks on or before July 1, 1933.

ILL HEALTH AND UNEMPLOYMENT CAUSED SUICIDE

Fred S. Howe, 49, Rock Falls City Clerk, Takes Own Life

Worry of ill health and his inability to secure steady employment are believed to have caused dependency which led Fred S. Howe, 49, city clerk of Rock Falls, to take his own life late yesterday afternoon. He was found dead in the garage at his home, 311 Third Ave. in that city shortly after 6 o'clock Wednesday evening.

A victim of monoxide fumes he had been dead about an hour and a half when his body, slumped over in the front seat of his automobile, was found by Mrs. Howe.

A piece of garden hose, attached to the exhaust pipe of the car, which was still running, extended into the interior of the machine. A handkerchief had been placed over his face. The inhalator squad of the Sterling fire department, directed by Fire Chief Connie Nichols, made futile efforts to revive him.

Busy During Day

Howe, well known in the twin cities as a city official and prominent lodge man, spent the morning and early part of the afternoon in the local business district. His wife did not see him drive the automobile into the garage.

He had been assistant cashier of the closed Rock Falls National bank before it closed and prior to that had been accountant for the Sterling Manufacturing company.

Born In Morrison

Born in Morrison, Howe had resided in Rock Falls the past twenty-six years. He was a member of the Rock Falls Masonic Blue lodge and a past patron of the chapter, Order of Eastern Star. He also was active in the Congregational church.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Belle Wilson Howe, he leaves a daughter, Miss Charlotte Howe, his mother and one sister.

Progress Is Made Toward Reopening Of City Nat'l. Bank

The bank situation in Dixon remains the same, although the City National Bank is making very satisfactory progress toward reopening.

The U. S. Treasury department, although it has not started to open national banks which are under conservators in this district, is showing signs of increased activity in that respect and is believed to be rapidly approaching the point where many banks will be reopened soon.

The officers of the City National Bank have made considerable headway in the matter of reducing loans and securing additional collateral on loans as the general financial set-up has so much improved that the bank plans to ask the department for a new appraisal soon.

Next Saturday Proclaimed Poppy Day In This City

Saturday, May 27, was designated as "Poppy Day" in Dixon in a proclamation issued today by Mayor George C. Dixon. The proclamation called upon all citizens of the city to observe the day by wearing the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary poppy in memory of the World War dead.

"Whereas, in the great crisis of the World War the young men of Dixon offered their services to our country with an exalted spirit of patriotism, number of them sacrificing their lives in that service; and, whereas, the same exalted spirit of patriotism is needed today for the service of our country in its peace-time difficulties;

"Therefore, I, Geo. C. Dixon, Mayor of the city of Dixon, urge all citizens to recall the spirit of these gallant dead and renew the memory of their high patriotic service by the wearing of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary memorial poppy on Saturday, May 27.

That purpose, I do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 27, Poppy day in the city of Dixon.

V. F. W. JOIN HANDS

In a communication to The Telegraph Horace F. Ort Post No. 540, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of which George Ortgiesen is commander, asks public support for the Legion, as follows:

"By mutual agreement between Horace F. Ort Post No. 540 V. F. W. and Dixon Legion Post No. 12, American Legion the American Legion will have the exclusive right to sell poppies Saturday, May 27, 1933. Because of the vast demand on veterans organizations, for relief, we urge the people of this community to wear a poppy and to contribute as liberally as possible to this worthy cause.

"Your contribution will do double service first to the disabled veteran who made them, secondly to the local Legion post and the worthy program of local relief work."

Van Petten Man Is Sued For Damages

Charles Manning, residing near Van Petten, has been made the defendant in a damage suit for $5,000 which has been instituted by Effie Moore of Chicago. The action, which has been filed in the Circuit Court here, alleges that the plaintiff sustained great bodily injuries and bruises which caused her to remain in a sick, sore and wounded condition over a long space of time, which she attributes to Manning's negligence in operating an automobile.

The action alleges an automobile collision on state highway route 88, two miles south of Rock Falls on December 7, 1932, in which cars driven by the plaintiff and Manning collided. The plaintiff represents that she expended the sum of about $100 in regaining her health.

Treasury Secretary Woodin, Rackob And Coolidge Among Scores Who Were On Inside

Coolidge Made His Purchases After Presidency

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—The name of former President Calvin Coolidge was contained in a list of favorite purchasers of "Standard Brands" stock through J. P. Morgan & Company introduced in evidence today in the Senate investigation of the wealthy banking firm.

The list, composed of scores of prominent figures, showed that the late Mr. Coolidge purchased 3,000 shares out of a total of 722,600 sold.

William H. Woodin, present Secretary of the Treasury, also was named as he was on the first list submitted yesterday which dealt with Allegheny stock sales to him at $20 when the market price was much higher. On the "Standard Brands" list Woodin was down as having purchased 1,000 units, the same amount as on the Allegheny allotment to "close friends" of the Morgan banking house.

Had Left White House

The "Standard Brands" issue was in the summer of 1929, after the late Mr. Coolidge left the White House.

Senate investigators also disclosed letters today from John J. Rackob and other prominent figures "thanking" the firm for selling the Allegheny stock under special arrangement.

Meanwhile, Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, showed through questioning Richard Whitney, youthful member of the firm, that the bargain sales were made at the same time to Rackob, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Joseph R. Nutt, Treasurer of the Republican National Committee.

A letter from Rackob expressing appreciation of "kindly remembering" him and expressing the hope he could reciprocate in the future was placed in the record.

Asked how Rackob could reciprocate Whitney quickly suggested he was Chairman of the Democratic Committee.

Other names on the list of those favored by Morgan in this instance, as introduced while Whitney testified, included Norman H. Davis, Roosevelt Ambassador-at-Large now in Europe, 500 shares; John W. Davis, former Democratic presidential nominee and counsel for Morgan, 5,000 shares; and various of the Morgan partners.

On O'Neil's List

Woodin and Davis were also in the list submitted yesterday of privileged purchasers of Allegheny stock.

General John J. Pershing was on the "Standard Brands" list for 500 shares, and also on the Allegheny list yesterday. Another name was Charles D. Hilles, prominent in New York Republican politics, 2,000 shares.

After Pecora introduced a list of favored purchasers of "Standard Brands Inc." Whitney said the list of purchasers for 724,000 shares of Standard Brands stock was selected in "much the same way" as the Allegheny list.

"They're not the same men?" Pecora asked.

"It was an entirely different type of company," Whitney said.

"At whose suggestion was Calvin Coolidge included?"

"I assume Mr. Thomas Cochran, one of our partners. He was a close personal friend of Mr. Coolidge and advised him on his investments after he left the White House."

Pecora brought out that the cost of the Standard Brands stock to Morgan & Company was $32 a share and that this was the price of its sale to the selected customers list. Trading in the stock opened at 40-7-8 on September 6, 1929, and it was quoted at 43-7-8 on September 10.

Pecora asked if there was ever a partners' meeting at which it was decided what individuals were invited to subscribe.

"To the best of my knowledge and belief there was not. The

Says Woodin's Usefulness Has Come To Its End

Washington, May 25.—(AP)—The Senator Robinson (R. Ind.) said in the Senate today that the "usefulness" of William H. Woodin as Secretary of the Treasury has ended "as a result of testimony linking his name with stock offerings of the J. P. Morgan banking house."

The Indianan, in a speech assailing America's action in agreeing to consult with other nations in the event of a war threat, also asked if Norman H. Davis, this country's representative at Geneva could "be representing the House of Morgan over there."

Davis was mentioned in testimony before the Senate Banking committee as having obtained a loan from the banking house. "Mr. Woodin is occupying an enviable position," Robinson said, "with vast powers that call for the confidence of the people behind him. He has lost that confidence. His usefulness as Secretary of the Treasury has ended."

Davis, Robinson went on "should be brought back from Europe because the American people have lost confidence in him and he should be recalled."

partners converge on a list," Whitney said. "We make suggestions and they are gradually brought together."

"If this stock had opened at $15 would you have expected these men to carry out their agreements?" Gore (D., Okla.) asked.

"Yes, sir. They are the type who want to fulfill their obligations."

Explained Taxes

Morgan took the stand to explain his testimony yesterday that he paid income taxes in England during 1931 and 1932 and nothing in the United States. He said:

"I was asked yesterday whether I paid any income taxes to any foreign government and replied that I had paid income taxes to the British government."

"May I state that my income tax to the British government is paid upon a statutory basis and is estimated by the inland revenue authorities, they basing their estimates upon the fact that I own property in Great Britain."

"I paid an assessment during 1930 of 7,000 pounds and approximately similar amounts for 1931 and 1932. The English income tax includes a tax on the rental value of property owned which the owner uses and which would have increased his income had he rented it."

"It does not include any capital gains and losses."

After concluding the written part, Morgan added:

Takes Pains With Taxes

"I take great pains and have all my life to pay all the taxes I am called upon to pay by the various governments—not to underpay and not to overpay."

"Then the fact that you paid no income tax here in 1931 and 1932 is because your losses were greater than your income?" asked Barkley (D., Ky.)

"That's it," Morgan replied, "my losses were greater than my income."

"If the English law had held here you would have paid income taxes in 1931 and 1932?" asked Pecora.

"To quite a considerable amount," Morgan replied, "but I wouldn't have paid as much in 1928 and 1929."

Capone Prevented Prison Riot With $100 Bill, Pennsylvania Penitentiary Official Reveals

Philadelphia, May 25.—(AP)—Al Capone, "Public Enemy No. 1" before he landed in Atlanta penitentiary, today is credited with halting a prison riot—with a $100 bill.

Henry N. Woolman, president of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern Penitentiary, where Capone spent a year for carrying a pistol, related the story for the first time last night.

He said Warden Herbert Smith learned one day that about 100 convict-workers in the prison shoe shops had stolen knives. That afternoon the prisoners gathered in the prison yard to witness boxing matches.

Smith called for the first bout. No one responded, but the circle of convicts started to close in.

The Warden told the men that if they dropped the knives in a bucket, nothing would happen. But no one made a move.

The men began to growl. "I'll give $100 to the first man scoring a knockout," Capone was quoted as shouting.

With a whoop, the boxers headed for the ring, leaving the knives scattered behind and in the bucket. Woolman said Capone said.

SAYS HER HUSBAND

LOST 16 POUNDS

IN 4 WEEKS
"I have never found a medicine that 'peps' you up like Kruschen. It's better still. It leaves you 'pepped up.' I take it two or three times a week—not to reduce but merely to feel good and clean. My husband took it to reduce. He lost 16 pounds in 4 weeks. Mrs. E. A. Ferris, Washington, D. C. (December 29, 1932).
To lose fat and at the same time gain in physical attractiveness and feel spirited and youthful take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning.
A jar that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle at any drug store in the world but be sure and get Kruschen. Sells the SAFE way to reduce wide hips, prominent front and double chin and again feel the joy of living—money back if dissatisfied after the first jar.—Adv.

WILD ROSES
GAINST the dim hot summer blue
You wave of white wild-roses lies,
Watching with listless golden eyes
The green leaves shutting out their view.
The tiny leaves whose motions bright
Are like small wings of emerald light;
While butterflies like snow-flakes fall
And brown bees drone their honey-call —William Sharp, Poems.
Baby night-hawks appear to be wide awake when really asleep. A peculiar spot in front of the eye is designed to deceive enemies.

Helps for Housewives
PARTIES SLOW-STARTING—TRY A "SURPRISE HUNT"—One of the best ways to start a children's party is to have a surprise hunt, trifling presents, such as candy tied in paper napkins, each bearing the name of a little guest, can be hidden under tables, back of sofas, in three trunks—everywhere. It's a good way to overcome the shyness of the children.
THEY NEED POCKETS
Children's clothing should be liberally supplied with pockets large and deep enough to hold things without likelihood of losing them. Useless shallow pockets should be replaced by adequate ones before garments are worn. When a little girl's dress seems prettier without pockets these can be sewn on the bloomers of the same material usually worn beneath.
TABLE NOT THE PLACE FOR CHILDREN'S TOYS
Sometimes children want to bring their dolls or wooly animals to the dinner table. It is best not to allow this, since it leads to dawdling and inattention to the business of eating. The child usually can be satisfied by seeing his dolls and animals seated about his nursery table set with his tea party dishes.
A SHAMPOO TIP
If you've given your head an oil shampoo rinse it with cold water before applying soap and hot water. This will take out the oiliness.
FOR HIS PRIVATE THINGS
Every child should have some place in which he may keep things and into which no one is allowed to look without an invitation from him. This secret place may be a cupboard or merely a drawer in a desk or a bureau to which, if he likes he may carry the key.
FOR BRIGHTER WINDOWS
Put a little bluing in the water when washing windows. It will give them a much brighter look. And also polish them after they are dry with a chamomile cloth.
The cheaper cuts of meat contain as much nutriment as the more expensive cuts.
Plan the budget to include the daily food requirements of the family—plenty of milk, eggs, fresh vegetables, cereals and fruits.
Save all meat and vegetable stock and use it in soups, gravies, stews and sauces.
Purchase groceries carefully. Take advantage of weekly food sales of standard products.

PARTIES SLOW-STARTING—TRY A "SURPRISE HUNT"—One of the best ways to start a children's party is to have a surprise hunt, trifling presents, such as candy tied in paper napkins, each bearing the name of a little guest, can be hidden under tables, back of sofas, in three trunks—everywhere. It's a good way to overcome the shyness of the children.
THEY NEED POCKETS
Children's clothing should be liberally supplied with pockets large and deep enough to hold things without likelihood of losing them. Useless shallow pockets should be replaced by adequate ones before garments are worn. When a little girl's dress seems prettier without pockets these can be sewn on the bloomers of the same material usually worn beneath.
TABLE NOT THE PLACE FOR CHILDREN'S TOYS
Sometimes children want to bring their dolls or wooly animals to the dinner table. It is best not to allow this, since it leads to dawdling and inattention to the business of eating. The child usually can be satisfied by seeing his dolls and animals seated about his nursery table set with his tea party dishes.

The ladder that the Tynmities made, against the monstrous tree was laid. The big woodpecker eyed it, but kept pecking at the tree. "Oh, what a fine place," Dotty said. "My, that bird is smart. His pecking is a work of art. I'll bet he knows he's making a fine little home for me."

"Me, too," cried Goldy. "Don't forget, that when the tree house is all set, we two are going to share it. It will be our home, sweet home."

"Now, if a wild wind comes along, it will be all right. The house is strong. We'll never find a safer one, no matter where we roam."

Then Scouty shouted, "Look! It is done! The bird has had a lot of fun. I wish that he would come down here and let us pet his big head."

The bird, however, flew away. The bunch then heard we Coppy say, "It's getting dark. I think it is time for me to go to bed."

"That suits me fine," said we Goldy. "Gee, here's where I climb up in the tree."

The Tynmities held the ladder, so the two girls would not fall.

"Oh, what a fine place," Dotty cried. "It's really nice and warm inside."

"Good-night," said we Scouty. "Get up in the morning, when we call."

The balance of the Tynmities went right over to their little tent. It wasn't very long until they were all sleeping very sound.

The long night drifted into day, and then the lads heard Windy say, "Get up! I have some bad news. I have been out to look around."

"The girls are missing from their house. I sneaked up, quiet as a mouse, but they were gone. It's something that I cannot understand."

All of the Tynmities rushed outside and, very shortly, Scouty cried, "Hey, somebody has been here. There are footprints on the sand."

(The Tynmities start out to find Goldy and Dotty in the next story.)

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS AND HIS FRIENDS

Text: Mark 13:33-14-9

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for May 28.

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist

As Jesus drew near to the shadow of the cross, his earthly ministry and his relationships with his Disciples developed in richness. From teaching concerning the nature of the Gospel he had given them to minister, he turned to exhortations, that they might prove faithful through watching and praying. He knew that the impending events were going to test them as well as himself, and he urged them above all things to be found watchful and ready.

The incident in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper, where Jesus sat eating, and a woman came and broke a very costly alabaster cruse of ointment pouring it upon his head, is one that has caught the world's imagination. It stands closely related to the questions of sentiment and practicality concerning the world's need.

There were, presumably, practical people in the group who were indignant over the incident.

But Jesus immediately defended her, in a saying that has been much abused and wrested into meanings that Jesus certainly never intended. He pointed out that the poor were always with them, and that whenever they wished they could do them good, but that this woman had performed an act of deep affection. Within the narrow space of a life that too soon would close, and in anticipation of the death that he had already predicted, he spoke of her act as the anointing of his body beforehand for the burying.

Also, with words that have been thoroughly vindicated in the course of history, he pointed out that wherever the Gospel should be preached the story of this woman's deed would be told for a memorial of her.

What are we to take out of the incident? Did Jesus mean that our care for the poor is a secondary thing, that we should be careless or extravagant in our expenditures simply because they may be motivated with kindly impulse or have as their purpose the bringing of happiness to someone whom we love? Most assuredly not.

But what was the nature of this ointment, and what was its purpose? It was to be used for somebody exactly as this woman used it for Jesus. Whom could she have found more worthy upon whom to bestow it? It was being put to the use for which it was intended.

Also there are deeper questions in relation to the incident. If one had been a poor starving person in that ancient society, to whom would he have gone for help with the greatest assurance of receiving it? To the practical-minded Judas, carrying the bag and counting and husbanding every penny, or to this woman, with her generous heart, capable of giving and with a sense of values that was not always determined by material things?

It is the people who set the poor over against such noble and gener-

VAILE AND O'MALLEY

YES, WE HAVE MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR

An American who has spent the last five or six years in Europe returned to his own country on a vacation recently. Visiting friends in a typical American city, he put in several days driving around the town, its suburbs and the adjacent countryside. Then, one evening, he told his hosts:

"You people have no idea how lucky you are to be living in America. You can't imagine how much better off you are than the rest of the world. Even in the depression your workman and small-salaried office worker have so much more than similar people in Europe have that there's just no comparison."

"After living in Europe for a while, a man who comes back to America feels as if he had got to the finest country in the world."

That sort of talk, of course, used to be our most common boast. In the last two or three years we haven't heard it so often. Indeed, we have let the depression undermine our confidence so much that we have sometimes talked as if we were the unluckiest of all people, instead of the luckiest.

But we're still sitting on top of the heap, comparatively speaking, and it wouldn't hurt us to keep remembering it.

That doesn't mean that we should close our minds to the fact that we have upwards of 10,000,000 men out of work, that we should forget that hunger and discouragement and want are abroad in the land as seldom before, that we should become Pollyannas and shut our eyes to all unpleasant sights.

It simply means that in spite of all our troubles we have a great deal to thank God for, and that we can face the future with more hope and courage if we realize the fact.

By keeping that in mind we can help to advance that great American dream — the dream which has hovered over our horizon for more than a century; the dream that in this land it would be possible to make a better life possible for the average man, the dream that freedom and contentment and happiness could more easily be made everyday realities here than anywhere else on earth.

That dream is still possible of attainment. By keeping our eyes on it, hoping for it and working for it, we shall be helping, year by year, to make it come true.

THE DEMAND FOR AUTOS

The increase in American automobile production recorded in April is one of the most encouraging facts on the whole industrial horizon.

To begin with, it is the first genuine upturn recorded by the automobile industry since the depression began.

Secondly, it has come in direct response to dealer demand. The manufacturers are not forcing cars on their retailers; they are making them because the retailers have discovered that the public demand is going up. The cars that are leaving the factories these days are being sold.

The buying of automobiles on an extensive scale is not a small-change business. If, at least, the market actually is expanding, it augurs well for a substantial pickup in general business.

WORK IN THE FORESTS.

As the new members of our "conservation corps" begin flocking to the various army cantonments, preparing to go to work on President Roosevelt's reforestation program, it might be worth while to clear up a misconception or two which most of us seem to entertain about the work they will do.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree Association, points out that planting trees will actually be a minor phase of their program. There is a lot more to reforestation than that.

"A forest work program," he says, "calls for much clearing out of woodlands as one phase of fire prevention. Forest trails must be made so that fire areas may be reached. The burned-over areas must be cleared of dead timber. Areas choked with young trees must be thinned to let the best trees grow. So it will be seen that the planting of trees in some areas will be the last thing on the program."

When hubby's pockets are choking with greenbacks it's easy for him to get into trouble, but when he's nursing a thin dime he's more apt to behave himself.—Lee Winchester, Memphis (Tenn.) divorce proctor.

George Bernard Shaw is like a fly riding on the axle of a chariot wheel and exclaiming, "What a dust I do raise!"—Frederic S. Anderson, 23, member of an American college debating team in England.

I think the principal duty of the Republicans today is to help make good the Democratic promises of a return of prosperity and of employment.—Will Hayes, former postmaster general.

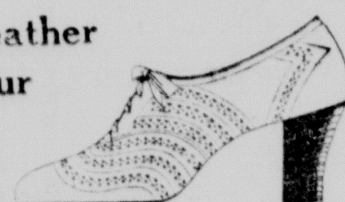

There are likely to be just as many important new inventions in the future as there have been in the past.—Dr. William F. Ogburn, University of Chicago.

Sidelights In News In Capital Of United States

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—Again it appears President Roosevelt has made the politically minded in Washington blink their eyes at another maneuver—this time in regard to the proposal to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment.

This question, so important in the nominating and election campaigns last year, has received scant public attention from the White House since March 4. Apart from the statement authorized on the day that Congress voted to submit prohibition repeal, that he was "pleased", Roosevelt has been silent about that.

And efforts have been made to have him say something, too. At his bi-weekly press conferences, several times he has been asked to comment. Each time he has smilingly shunted the suggestion.

A LURE—

Now he comes forward with his bill seeking industrial recovery which carries with it a tax increase. And he adds that provision should be made for the reduction or elimination of these new levies "when even the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment... shall have been ratified and the repeal of the Volstead act effected."

Political observers here think no more subtle or astute approach could have been made to the question of repeal than this. He has thrown out a lure, they say, that will be hard to resist.

WHAT'S NEXT?—

At any rate, the President seems to have given new thought to the question, even if it is by implication.

Reports in some quarters have it that he may go further while his industrial recovery bill is being considered by Congress, urge the various states to quicken their efforts to set up the necessary machinery for disposal of the question. Others insist that he will wait until Congress adjourns before further action.

COMPTON NEWS

By Leslie G. Archer

Compton—The Compton baseball team, won over West Brooklyn by a score of 7 to 2, at the local park Sunday, to keep their percentage up to par, along with Kakusha Park of Mendota and Lee Center in the Illinois State League. A. Chaon drew the pitching assignment from Manager Webber, and was able to emerge from the game allowing only six hits, netting two runs. Chaon was opposed by Jerry Long, a veteran of many seasons, who was rapped by the Compton batsmen for eleven hits. Next Sunday the club will play at LaMoille for their fourth encounter in the league circuit.

The village board, at a special meeting held Tuesday evening voted to hire Harlo Olson as utility man for the coming year. The board called for sealed bids, seven of which were considered, with Olson receiving the majority of votes. He will take up his work for the village on June 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. William Archer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDougall to Peoria, Sunday, where they spent the day, enjoying the beautiful scenery there. Coach Ott will enter his entire team in the Tri-Angle track and field meet at Rollo next Monday afternoon. The meet is an annual affair between Paw Paw, Rollo and Compton. It was scheduled for early in May, but was postponed because of inclement weather. This will mark the final competition for the Blue and White team this season. Cook, Zinke, Buchanan and Florscheutz will compete for the last time for our school, due to their graduation next month.

Manager Webber of the Compton baseball team has announced that the following business men have contributed the following amounts to the local club—H. M. Chaon and Sons, $5.00; R. M. Carnahan, C. L. Ogilvie and G. D. Archer, $1.00 each.

The Compton Woman's Club flower show will be held Saturday June 3. This is somewhat earlier than at first planned, but it is felt that by that time the feature flowers will be well advanced.

Some changes have been made in the entry list:

Class 1—Potted plants—the following separate lots have been added: Rex Begonia, Boston Fern, Porch Hydrangea, Baby's Tears, Shamrock Primrose.

Class 2—Cut Flowers: The Bleeding Heart bouquet has been removed from the list and in its place a very interesting addition made—most outstanding collection of five artistic bouquets, any flowers or combinations, any suitable containers. The flowers must be grown by the exhibitor.

Class 4. The Junior Department will consist of:

Lot 1. Set of garden makers.

Lot 2. Best birdhouse.

There will be a program of music and garden talks in both afternoon and evening. A popular vote will be taken on the most attractive exhibit.

Exhibitors from our own community will make their entries on Friday afternoon or evening, or from 8:00 to 10:00 Saturday morning. Out-of-town exhibitors have the privilege of entering up to 12:00 on Saturday.

There will be no admission price charged.

The Compton Woman's Club held its May meeting on Monday evening May 15. A colonial program was planned and carried out by Mrs. Maxine Gilmore.

One feature of the evening was an old time gift shop, to which various members brought heirlooms and old fashioned articles of interest. Then a display and discussion of old shawls was held. This was followed by a colonial school with Mrs. Gilmore as the master. Mrs. Faye Archer, Mrs. Frances Ott, Miss Helen Archer, Miss Marjorie Newenham and Miss Evelyn Gilmore as colonial school-boys. In the holding of this school many interesting colonial ways and manners were shown—the books, rules of conduct, games and punishments. A number of high school girls in costume then demonstrated several old time singing

ATHLETICS ARE SHOWING SOME PUNCH AT HOME

Current Play Indicated
Connie Mack May Have Been Right

By HUGH S. FULLERTON
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

When Connie Mack sold three star players to the Chicago White Sox and maintained the Philadelphia Athletics still could put a team on the field that would be a pennant contender, echoes of the more or less subdued laughter of the "experts" rang all around the American League. But it appears that after all the "tall talk" which Mack was talking about.

An outfield consisting of Ed Coleman, Bob Johnson and Ager Cramer, all youngsters; a rookie, Frank Higgins, at third base and another, Eddie Cihocki, at short, hardly looks like the material of which a contender is made, but with these players, plus Jimmie Fox, Mickey Cochrane and Lefty Grove, the A's have been winning ball games since they began their home stand against the west.

A week after the season started the Athletics were in the American League cellar. They started hitting on their return home, in ten days have won seven out of eight games and have climbed finally into the first division.

Into Fourth Place
They made the final step into fourth place yesterday by walloping the St. Louis Browns 7 to 4 in a game out short in the sixth inning by a thunderstorm that flooded the field and started a small fire, when lightning struck a recently vacated part of the stands.

The A's gathered only six hits off Bump Hadley, but they placed them well behind walks, scoring five runs in the fifth.

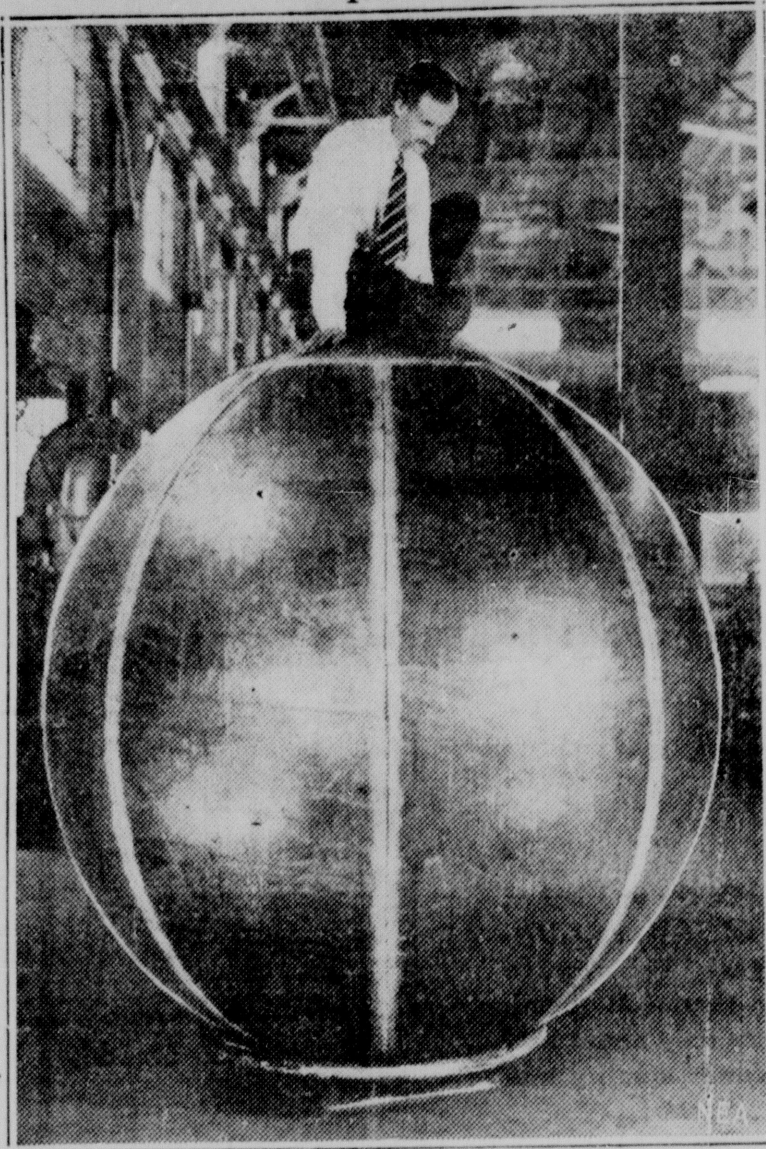

Grove made his fourth successive appearance in the finishing role, pitching the last inning.

Cleveland was rained out at New York. The Chicago White Sox gained second place when they were kept idle at Boston.

Bridge's Hard Luck
The Washington Senators, previous holders of second, ran into Tommy Bridges' second one-hit game of the season and went down a notch as Detroit won 3-1. Bridges faced only 29 men as he lost a perfect game for the third time in his short career. Joe Kuhel clouted a home run in the eighth and Dave Harris, who spoiled Tommy's first chance for a no-hit game with a pinch single last year, was carefully walked.

In the National League the Pittsburgh Pirates increased their lead over New York to three games by pounding steadily at Brooklyn pitching until they won out 6-5 in the tenth inning. The Cincinnati Reds meanwhile gave the Giant's a 3-1 setback, falling on George Uhle in the first three innings for the winning runs while Bob Smith

"PEPPER" MAKES FANS CHEER INSTEAD OF JEER

Hero of World Series Of 1931 Has Made Great Comeback

St. Louis, May 25—(AP)—A month ago a lowly substitute, today the idol of once jeering fans and leading hitter of the National Baseball league.

Such is the record of John Leonard (Pepper) Martin, former outfielder, now third baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals.

In the 1931 world's series Pepper Martin was the spark plug that drove the Cardinals to a world championship at the expense of the Philadelphia Athletics. His name filled the papers; he made a profitable vaudeville tour.

Last year, handicapped by injury, the one-time "Pepper-Pot" couldn't maintain his series stride. His playing went into a slump and never emerged.

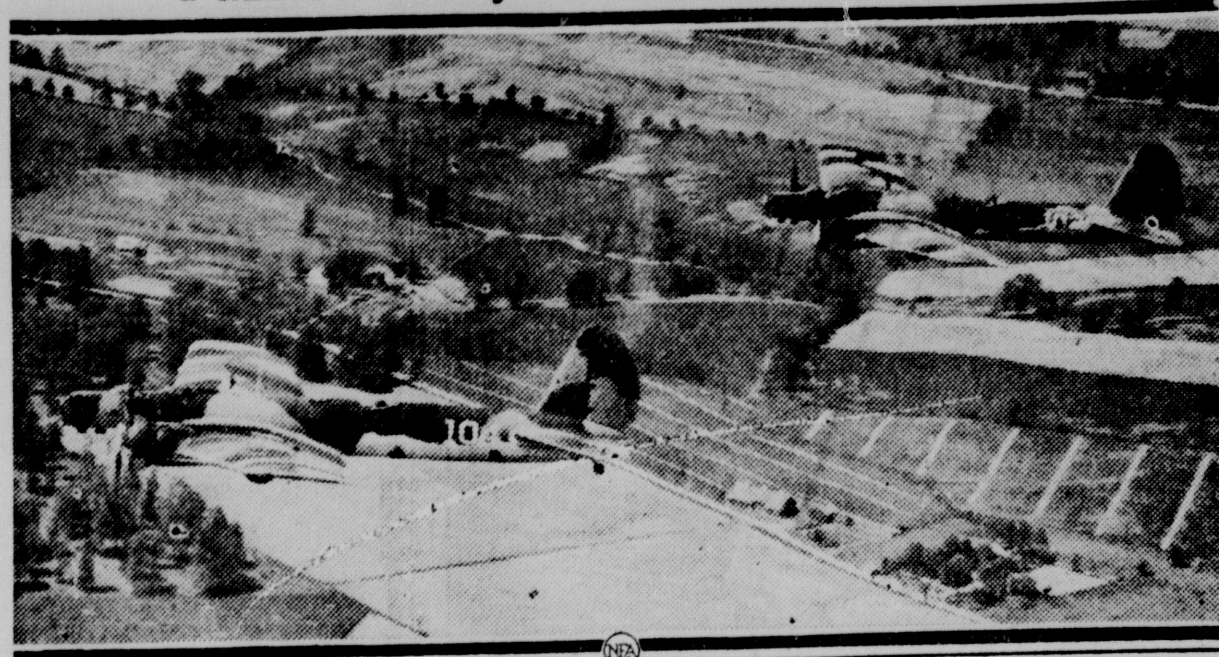

When the Cardinals played exhibition games this spring, Martin rode the bench. He still was aboard when Manager Gabby Street bought the St. Louis team home April 20.

The Cardinals lacked punch. Street placed the former outfielder on third base.

The fans hooted and jeered him April 23 when he showed anger after striking out.

But "Pepper" Martin persisted. His fielding improved with his batting. Home runs, triples, two-base hits poured from his bat. He moved up into the charmed circles

Puzzled? They're Camouflaged Planes

If this picture is puzzling, then the army air corps is satisfied. For the planes are camouflaged, to blend into the pattern of the earth below. of leading National League batters. Now St. Louis fans cheer his appearance at the plate.

Today his batting average of .371 tops the circuit roll call. He has batted safely in each of his last 14 games.

LEADERS FOR SENIOR LOOP TEAM GAINING

Not Much Contest To Pick Best Team In National League

Chicago, May 25—(AP)—At the rate the leaders are pulling away in the nation-wide poll to select an all-star team from the National League to oppose the best in the American League July 6 in Chicago, there may not be much of a battle over positions.

Only in the voting for shortstop was there any kind of a contest today. Dick Bartell of the Phillies had 1,785 to 1,242 for Floyd Hargrett of Pittsburgh. Gabby Hartnett, Cub catcher, had a huge lead, 5,679 to 525 for Jimmy Wilson of the Cardinals.

Leaders for other positions: First base—Bill Terry, New York, 3,870; Jim Bottomley, Cincinnati, 1,535.

Second base—Frankie Frisch, St. Louis, 4,083; Bill Herman, Chicago, 1,197.

Third base—Pie Traynor, Pittsburgh, 4,086; Woody English, Chicago, 1,451.

Outfielders—Chuck Klein, Philadelphia, 5,838; Paul Waner, Pittsburgh, 4,245; Frank O'Doul, Brooklyn, 3,228; Wally Berger, Boston, 1,569.

Pitchers—Lonnie Warkene, Chicago, 5,766; Carl Hubbell, New York, 5,532; Red Lucas, Cincinnati, 2,511; Dizzy Dean, St. Louis, 1,479; St. Johnson, Cincinnati, 1,443.

"Candid Camera" Writes Dramatic Chapter in Nation's Financial History as

KING OF BANKERS UNDERGOES SENATE INQUIRY

Here is J. P. Morgan, the emperor of finance, as he edged his way through the crowded Senate committee room to answer the government's searching inquiries into his world-wide banking operations. Spectators gazed on him with deference, some in awe.

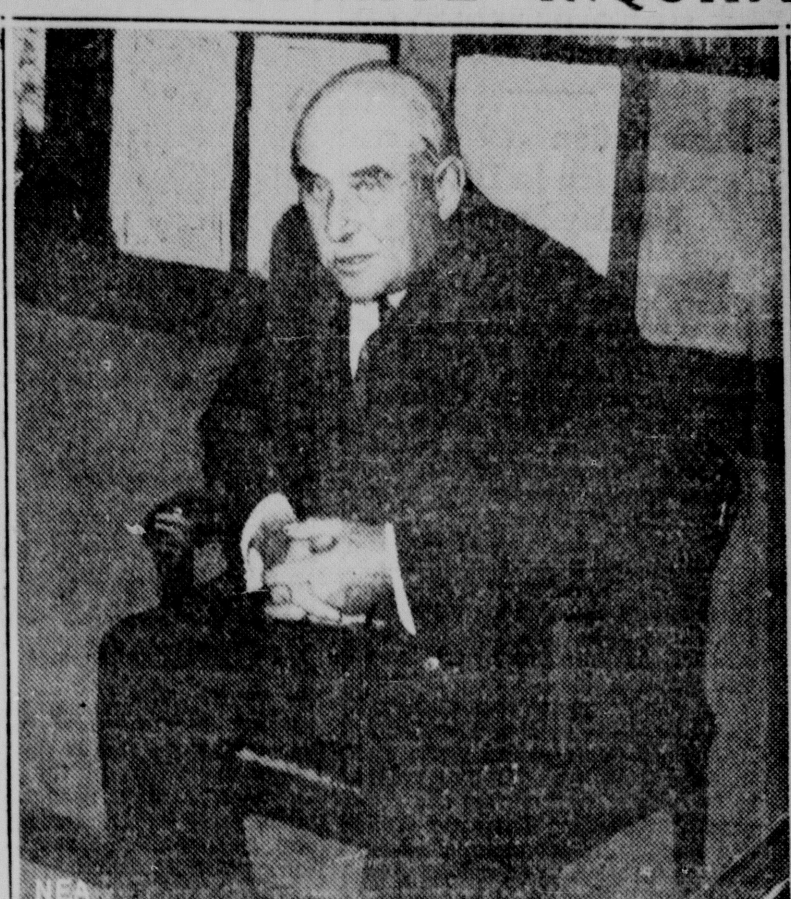

Morgan, seated, faced his inquirers as shown here, unperturbed and with lips firmly set, ready to reveal the operations of the world's most powerful money combine.

"I really don't know a thing about the income tax matter . . . I don't know anything about income taxes at all," Morgan told the committee, admitting he had paid no income taxes since 1929, and disclosing that his firm's assets are more than a quarter of a billion dollars.

Asked if he didn't participate in a "substantial share" of his firm's profits, Morgan turned his head to interpose: "Yes, I participate in the losses, also."

Hands folded, the world's biggest private banker rests on his contention that "the private banker is a national asset and not a national danger . . . any power which he has comes, not from the possession of large means, but from the confidence of people in his character and credit."

Oak Forest Leaves

By Mrs. Lester Hoyle

Oak Forest — The Oak Forest school term closed Tuesday with a picnic at Cedar Crest, in response to a kindly invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle. There were not very many present, on account of the busy season. A lovely picnic dinner was served at noon, followed by ice cream. Everyone enjoyed the day in the woods and the opportunity for a neighborly visit. It was announced that Richard Hoyle was the only pupil who was neither absent nor tardy for the term, a good record, which he held last term, also. We were glad to hear that the teacher, Mrs. Charles A. Dickey, will be with us again next term.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle who spent the winter at Cedar Crest are moving to their own home in Dixon Friday.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Pick and daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gerdes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey, Lois Hampdon, and Lester and Walter Hoyle's families enjoyed the day in the woods and on the river, with a fine picnic dinner and supper in Hoyle's cabin.

At the hospitable home of Mrs. Frank Becker and family, Sunday, the following guests enjoyed the day: Mrs. George Brooks and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levan and family, Don Brooks, of Polo, and Geo. Brooks Jr. and Glen Buzzard, Mrs. Andrew Fisher was formerly Miss Bessie Brooks.

Mrs. John Boucher visited Monday with her aunt, Mrs. John Rankin, of Dixon.

The City Altz Club enjoyed their annual picnic, Sunday, at the Frank Hoyle home. There were thirty-four present, including the guests of the club. After the picnic dinner games of baseball and hikes in the woods were enjoyed. The high water and swift current prohibited boating and bathing.

In the chill of the evening a bright fire in the fireplace made the cottage cozy and comfortable.

Mrs. Harry McGinnis and her daughter Ella Louise, Miss Pauline Becker and Mrs. Ella Older drove to the C. E. Morgan home, near Woosung, Monday. Ella Louise, who is recovering nicely from her recent accident remained there for a visit. Mr. Morgan is her grandfather.

Henry Sartorius shelled his corn last Monday.

Corn planting is rapidly nearing completion in our neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoyle and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoyle paid an early morning visit to the J. C. Wadsworth home, south of town, Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Hoyle entertained a few of her high school friends with a wicker roast Tuesday evening.

Charlie Dickey had the misfortune to injure his foot Monday, seriously enough to prevent his working. He therefore, enjoyed the school picnic Tuesday.

Mrs. Henry Burrows of Dixon is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Edward Hoyle and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Becker and daughter Coralie visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stout of Dixon.

Mrs. Freeman Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huffman entertained one evening recently, with a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle. Mrs. Hill is the latter's mother.

CANDIDATES FOR FEDERAL CORPS REPORT MONDAY

Examination Of Certified Men In Dixon Monday Morning

The certifying officers of the Lee County Emergency Relief Committee, to whom Lee county's quota of 64 young men for service in the Civilian Conservation Corps will report for examination at the Armory in Dixon at 8:30 o'clock next Monday morning, today received the following communication from Daniel Sands, Director of Emergency Conservation:

May 22, 1933
The following is taken from a bulletin of the United States Department of Labor and relates to incentives and penalties for men enrolled in Emergency Conservation work:

a. Under such regulations as may be issued by the Director of Emergency Conservation Work, and in accordance with definite grades to be defined by him, for the purpose of rewarding energetic effort and recognizing outstanding leadership, it is hereby ordered effective June 1, 1933, that not more than 5 per centum of the authorized strength of any Civilian Conservation Corps Company may be paid a cash allowance of $45 per month, and not more than an additional 8 per centum, a cash allowance of $35 per month.

b. Under such regulations as may be issued by the Director of Emergency Conservation Work, a penalty system is hereby authorized for minor offenses committed by enrolled personnel of the C. C. C. This system is to be comparable to the penalties customarily imposed by management of industrial enterprises in order to maintain efficiency of production and equality of opportunity and privileges for those employed. It shall include the conduct of hearings, governed by the rules of evidence, concerning offenses meriting such attention.

Each hearing shall, together with the findings and penalty imposed, be made of record in such manner as may be directed. Penalties authorized may include: Admonition; suspension of privileges; substitution of specified duties within the camp instead of the regular work for a maximum period of one week; or deduction of not to exceed three days' cash allowance per month.

You may think it desirable to inform your local agencies for selection at once, of these new regulations.

The selectees who are well intentioned (as we shall assume all of them to be) will find encouragement in the unexpected opportunity for advancement in pay and in position.

Any selectees who may be deterred from enrollment by knowledge of the penalties that may be imposed for offenses that impede work and impair the equal opportunity of all—if there be any such—are entitled to full notice in advance.

Everyday Religion

By Dr. Joseph Fort Newton

The first week I lived in England I was invited to attend a meeting of the Rainbow Club. It was formed by a lovely woman who had the knack—the genius, I had better say—of making people feel instantly at ease and at home.

Her idea was to bring together folk of all colors and thought—crusty Tories, rabid radicals, Socialists, saints, sinners, all sorts

President Signs Shoals Bill

and have them discuss things. She did it without any explosion, too. To hear such a group talk about the weather was interesting and worth while, for each one carried a different climate in his head.

Next to me at the table sat a famous American woman, the wife of a British nobleman, and between ourselves we said saucy, snippy things about the English, as no doubt they did about us. Thinking I could trust a compatriot, I confided to her in a whisper the ungallant remark: "Really, this is the homeliest set of people I have seen in many a day." But alas, as Kipling would say, I learned about women from her. What did she do but tell the company what I had said, and I wished, devoutly, that I might drop through the floor or else evaporate from the scene.

To my amazement, the hostess beamed on me, saying that I had paid her and her guests the highest possible compliment. "You Americans," she said, "say such nice things; we knew you were home when we met you!" I tried to look pleasant and understand, but I was all in a fog. The traitor-ess at my side knew—what I did not know—that in England the word "homey" means cozy, chummy, companionable, pleasant. That was true of the group too, but it was not what I had in mind! It taught me a lesson, but it filled me with terror and shivering alarm.

The next Sunday I was to preach to the English people for the first time in the pulpit of the City Temple. If ordinary, everyday words, I thought, have such different meanings in England from what they have with us, what awful things I might be saying in my sermon without knowing it! But in the vestry I found a vase of flowers and a note tucked in it, saying: "Welcome, God bless you. We have not come to criticize, but to pray with you and for you." Yes, they are a homely people.

MOONEY AGAIN PEELING SPUDS IN SAN QUENTIN

San Francisco, May 23—(AP)—Once convicted, once acquitted, Tom Mooney peeled potatoes in San Quentin prison today while his defenders sought to snatch advantage from a jury verdict labeled in advance by the court an empty victory.

Another plea for a pardon to Governor James Rolph, Jr., of California and an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States were proposed steps announced by the Mooney-Moules' Defense Committee.

"Perhaps, we may even go higher than that—to the President himself," Mooney declared at San Quentin to which he was hurried immediately after the verdict of acquittal, directed by the court, was returned yesterday.

No Testimony Offered
His acquittal without a line of testimony being offered, added another chapter to the long fight he has waged—since the death sentence was commuted to life in prison—for complete exoneration.

The verdict was merely a matter of formality after Judge Ward ruled and the jury required but two minutes to sign the prepared form.

L. C. SNYDER, Advertising Director of the Seattle (Wash.) Times, says:

"In today's world, fast-moving, and chameleon-like, the newspaper, chronicling events as they occur, is a vital, necessary part of human progress. Toward the newspaper men and women alike turn for current information covering the happenings of the social and business sides of life. Instinctively as the year's have passed they have come to recognize in advertising, as well as in the editorial content of the newspaper news of vital importance to their continued happiness.

"Each year brings changes to each city; children are born and people die; others grow to maturity, taking up the burden where their predecessors have halted. Many of these new masters and mistresses of the households of the city are shopping for the first time. They have open minds and their habits of the future are in the making. Because youth is more demanding they will not accept without question the precedents laid down by their fathers. They will search and find for themselves the products they will use in their homes, the food they will consume, and the clothes they will wear on their backs. To these young people and to those people who are not habit forming, who do not return naturally to the store where they purchased before — and there are many of them — and to those who have been dissatisfied with the service received elsewhere and wish to make a change, the message of the merchant of today must be told.

"No better medium than the newspaper in which to speak to each of these classes can be found. All have a common interest in the newspaper; it chronicles for each some event or series of events that to that individual is all important. No other medium for advertising is so all embracing; no other medium offers a potential market so large within a national shopping area where a definite interest guarantees the 100 per cent attention of each person contacted.

"The advertising message of today should be placed with the news of today."

Daily Health Talk

ENURESIS

It is estimated that approximately 1 per cent of school children are subject to enuresis, as the condition of bed-wetting is called. Boys are more subject to this disorder than girls, the proportion being about seven to five. The habit tends to disappear with age, but when persisting for any great length of time it may prove a serious hindrance to the educational and social development of the child.

The cause of enuresis may be grouped under five headings. These are bad training, physical defects, nervous causes, nutritional defects and disturbances of the endocrine system, particularly of the thyroid.

Treatment may be hygienic, medicinal or psychologic, generally all of them combined.

The normal child must be taught the hygiene of its bowels and bladder. The child suffering from enuresis should be taught to empty the bladder before going to bed. It should not receive tea, coffee or spices nor should it be permitted to take fluids after 6 o'clock.

Among the physical defects that may contribute to enuresis, enlarged adenoids stand out prominently. The effects of enlarged adenoids are thought to be due to disturbed sleep.

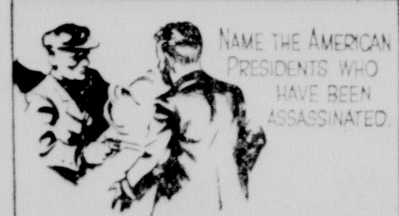

The existence of a hernia may at times contribute to enuresis. The correction of such defects is desirable under any circumstances and may correct the enuresis as well.

In recent years much emphasis has been placed upon the psychologic component of the enuresis case. Undoubtedly in a large number of instances there is a contributing psychologic or emotional factor. But the experience of many men who have devoted themselves to the study of the subject seems to indicate that a psychic cause rarely operates alone.

Shaming or rebuking the child suffering from enuresis is not desirable, particularly when dealing with nervous and sensitive children who may thus be easily driven into a state of despondency. The child, on the contrary, should be encouraged to overcome the condition.

North's Wheat Port Ready for Busy 15 Weeks

The farthest north port on the continent, Churchill, on the western coast of Hudson Bay, is preparing for the opening of ocean-bound traffic about July 1. The picture above shows the city, built to provide a shorter and cheaper route for shipping prairie wheat to Europe. Below is Churchill's new 2,000,000-bushel grain elevator. Churchill is 859 miles north of Lake Superior, and nearer the North Pole than Sitka, Alaska. In June the sun is down only four hours and night is merely twilight. Shipping is possible during 15 weeks of the year.

On Your Toes! Here's 'Fraternity Stomp,' Hollywood's Newest

NOW it's the "Fraternity Stomp" that's the newest dance craze in Hollywood and here Jack Oakie and Lona Andre, film stars, show how it's done. After starting with the gentleman's right hand around the lady's shoulder and facing the lady in a three-quarter position, they skip back, as shown in No. 1, the gentleman on the right foot and the lady on the left foot. In No. 2, the lady crosses the right foot over the left, the man crosses the left over the right and both bend knees and swing bodies together. In No. 3, they stamp heels, bend knees and swing bodies in opposite directions, repeating the stomp twice. In No. 4, they hop back, the man raising the right foot and the lady the left; then the man swings to front on right foot and lady swings to front on left foot, after which they repeat stomp with both feet flat, bend knees and return to starting position.

FIGHT ON SALES TAX IS DELAYED IN THE SENATE

Comes Up Wednesday: J. Devine's U. Of I. Bill Rebuffed

Springfield, Ill., May 25—(AP)—The fight over the new two per cent sales tax today had been stopped for a week by the Senate.

Opening the Horner administration's second campaign for a sales tax-unemployment relief law, Democratic leaders late yesterday reduced the impost one third from three to two per cent, but immediately encountered delays when an effort was made to rush the bill to the House.

After long arguments and technical maneuvering, a roll call was taken on which Senator Francis J. Loughran of Chicago, floor leader of the revenue measure, got 17 votes while 22 were cast for delaying further action on amendments until next Wednesday.

There were no indications that the administration meanwhile would introduce the bill in the House and seek to push it there before the Senate acts.

The Senate issue was not over the merits of the tax on retailers of tangible personal property, but whether further consideration should be given the bill. Only the two per cent amendment was introduced, but the bill was not advanced to third reading, the voting stage.

Anticipated Revenue
With exemptions continuing, the two per cent tax is expected to yield from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 a year, Loughran estimated, compared with a $60,000,000 maximum which had been expected from the unconstitutional three per cent sales tax law.

"This is far short of relief needs in Illinois, but we are hoping that distress is lessening and that demands for relief will be smaller," Loughran stated.

It was intimated that if the two per cent tax does not yield sufficient revenue, a special session of the legislature would be called in a few months.

During the debate, H. H. Hickman, Paris Democrat, answered in the affirmative when asked if he sought to delay action until after the June 5 judicial election.

State Obligated
James J. Barbour, Evanston Republican, argued that Illinois has obligated itself to take care of its own relief needs by promises for legislation made when $55,000,000 of relief money was borrowed from the federal government.

Possibility that administration support would be given a complementary revenue plan was suggested by Senator James Monroe, Collinsville Democrat, who is considering amending a bill he introduced Tuesday to provide for a one per cent tax on occupations not covered by the retailers' levy.

The legislature's special study of the entire tax distribution and endorsement system is to be started at Chicago tomorrow by the joint committee authorized under the Devine resolution. The committee named Senator Harold G. Ward, Chicago Democrat, as chairman and Pop. William G. Thon, Chicago Republican, as secretary.

The House Revenue committee voted 18 to 5 to recommend defeat for the bill by John Devine, Dixon Democrat, to require the University of Illinois to pay its funds into the State Treasury. President Harry Woodburn Chase and the trustees of the university attended the hearing.

MICHIGAN BIG TEN CHAMPION TO ENTER MEET

John Fischer Plans to Enter National Open And Amateur Play

Evanston, Ill., May 25—(AP)—Johnny Fischer, lanky University of Michigan Junior, who hopes to cut quite a figure in the National Open and Amateur golf tournament this year, has warmed up for his campaign by winning his second straight Western Conference title.

The Cincinnati youngster, who won the medal in the National Amateur qualifying round last year, made a brilliant finish yesterday at the Kildeer Country Club, to round up a 72-hole total of 301 strokes, 14 better than Earl Larson of Minnesota, and Ed Dayton, another Wolverine, who tied for second. He was late getting started, going two strokes over par in the outward nine in the morning, after taking a 76 in the afternoon.

On the home nine, however, he mixed in a pair of birdies with pars to finish the round in 71, par for the layout. With Dayton, who defeated Larson in the playoff for second place honors, and Cal Markham and George David, Fischer helped give Michigan its second title in a row. The Wolverines had a fourman total of 1,291. Minnesota, the 1932 runnerup, finished second again with 1,066.

Northwestern was third, scoring 1,328. Ohio State was fourth with 1,372, and the other four teams finished as follows: Wisconsin, 1,370; Illinois, 1,384; Indiana, 1,401; and Chicago, 1,431. Purdue and Iowa were not represented.

DARLING FOOL

BEGIN HERE TODAY
MONNIE O'DARE is going abroad with MISS ANSTICE COREY, an old friend of the O'DAREs to try to forget DAN CARDIGAN with whom she is in love. Dan's parents want him to marry wealthy SANDRA LAWRENCE who, while pretending to be Monnie's friend, has been trying to win him from her. Dan has been in Wyoming with a party including his mother, sister and Sandra. When Monnie received a cool letter from Dan she decided to accept Miss Corey's invitation to go to Europe as her companion.

Monnie does not know that Dan rushed home to see her, arriving just after her train left. She and Miss Anstice go to the theater in New York the night before their departure and a handsome stranger offers them his seat in the rain. The stranger is ARTHUR MCKENZIE and he calls next day on the same boat they take.

A message for Monnie from Dan reaches the pier too late to reach her.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXXIII
DAN said grumpily, "Tell her I'm out."

The new maid stood in the doorway, irresolute, as Mrs. Cardigan murmured protestingly. "Dan, you simply must go! It's disgraceful."

Frowning, he arose and went to the telephone. "Hello! Yes. Oh, I've been terribly busy. I'm afraid—" There was a pause during which Dan grimaced at the table against which he was resting. Then he said, none too graciously, "Oh, all right. Around 7? 'Bye. Be seeing you."

After the servant was out of earshot Mrs. Cardigan, majestic in her morning draperies of trailing lavender, presiding with elegance over the silver coffee pot, began lightly to take her son to task.

Underneath her bantering tones Dan detected real earnestness. "Danny, it's really too bad of you. Sandra asked you to that big dinner last Wednesday and you refused. She'll begin to think you're a boor." She smiled at him, holding out her hand for his cup.

"No more, thanks," Dan retorted. They were putting "the works" on him—his father, his mother, all of them. He was thoroughly out of temper and fed up with the whole business, he told himself. He'd half a mind to get out—go to South America—anywhere—on a cattle boat or a fruit boat. Sandra was all right. She was a swell girl if you liked the type. Dan was just out of tune with the universe ever since he'd made that quick trip back from the west to find Monnie gone.

He'd sent a wire to her hotel in New York, having ascertained by telephoning to the News office that Miss Anstice Corey was to stay. But Monnie hadn't answered. Dan didn't understand it. That is, he didn't until Geraldine had dropped some of her nasty hints a few days later.

"I see your girl friend has gone abroad," Geraldine had crowed, waving the town paper at him. Dan had growled, "Don't know what you're talking about." He had been furious. Geraldine had lifted her eyebrows, looking superior in that maddening way she had. Great mischief, sending that girl east to school!

"Oh, you don't?" she had drawled. "Monnie O'Dare's gone to Europe. Don't ask me how or why."

why. Guess maybe Charles Eustace could explain."

DAN had interrupted her, his eyes flashing, fists clenched. Even if she was his sister, by the Lord Harry, he'd make her eat her words. "What do you mean?" he had barked. Geraldine had been a bit frightened. Dan's temper was not to be roused unthinkingly.

"Nothing at all except that people are saying he wants to marry her," she had said hastily, "and that he's grooming her—seeing she has certain advantages before that happens."

"Rot!" Dan had not understood clearly the blind rage that flowed over him. Why, Monnie was promised to him! She had understood that. Then in a flash he remembered the letter he had written her from the ranch. What had he said? He couldn't quite remember. Something about having to change their plans. He had thought, of course, he would see her soon and explain to her that the precarious condition of his father's business and their dependence on Mr. Lawrence's good will made it necessary to "sit tight" for a while. Then to come back and find her gone—It was like a slap in the face. Dan told himself aggressively, forgetting utterly that it was he who had struck the first blow.

And now his mother was working on him, reminding him without saying so, straight out, that it was up to him to keep Sandra happy so Dad could ride along with the bank crowd, so that they wouldn't press him too hard just now.

"I'm going to the darn dinner," he observed sourly, "but don't ask me to like it."

His mother gave him her firm, toothy smile—her "clubwoman smile" Dan thought it.

"That's my grand big boy!" When Mrs. Cardigan had her own way she could be nice. She ran them all, Dan's father and all of them, with an iron hand but she smiled determinedly the while. Dan felt balked, baffled. He had to stand by Dad—for the present at least. Anyhow nothing much mattered if what Geraldine hinted about Charles and Monnie were true. He felt the old dull rage rise in him like a tide and clenched his fists, remembering—

"What's the matter, son?" Dan muttered something under his breath, choking down his toast. Yes, a fruit boat would be the thing, he was thinking. As soon as Dad's affairs were straight again he would clear out. Go away some place. They'd remember him, years after. "That Cardigan boy—lit out, didn't he? I hear he has a plantation in Santa something or other."

Meanwhile there was Sandra's "little dinner" to attend.

SHE was especially nice to Dan that night. Sandra, in her best mood, her gracious, interested, sisterly mood, was quite delightful. Even Dan had to admit it. She didn't demand compliments—rather naughty, she said. The other guests, a brother and sister from Cincinnati, Helen and Tad Williston, applauded loudly while Dan pretended to understand. He felt inferior and admired Sandra for her cleverness. She was a darn smart girl, no two ways about it, and very effective, with her dark hair banded demurely back. Sandra was wearing the quaintest of puffed and ruffled frocks in a new shade—hyacinth blue, she said, which gave a sea-tinge to her long-lidded green eyes and made her fair skin look dazzling.

The Willistons insisted they couldn't stop over. Tad had a director's meeting in the morning and Sandra drove them to the 11:20, with Dan in the rumble seat beside the Williston girl. She was a competent looking, rather mannish individual with coal black hair cut crisply away from a broad brow and big, strong, delicate fingered hands. Dan liked her.

Demanding a cigaret, she made a gesture toward the two in the front seat.

"Nice girl, Sandra," she said briefly. "Lots of fun."

Dan agreed, impressed in spite of himself by the Willistons and their dictum. Williston & Co. were "big people" in his father's line. He had been hearing of them since he was a child. He could not help being impressed with the fact that Helen Williston who had seen everything and been everywhere dubbed Sandra "nice" and "lots of fun."

"Can't see why she burles herself in this little town," muttered Dan's companion.

DAN had almost begun to defend Belvedere with the heat proper to a native son of the place when suddenly he remembered that he, too, was anxious to get away. He mumbled something, thinking that Miss Williston must think him a dull fellow.

On the ride home he was unusually silent. Sandra, seeming to sense his mood, talked in desultory snatches.

"Don't you want to come in and have a cigaret?" she asked as they approached the Lawrence place.

DUDES SUFFERED FIRST DEFEAT IN GAME LAST NIGHT

Legion Team Surprised League Leaders By Superior Play

A crowd of about 500 interested fans gathered at the high school athletic field last evening to witness two games of the city softball league and in both instances the fans were fully repaid for their attendance. With the bright warm evenings, the attendance at all of the games is increasing to a point beyond that of former years.

The Park Board through its president, Louis Pitcher, materially aided the league yesterday afternoon in furnishing six posts which are used in erecting the backstops at the athletic field. "Bud" Rink, "Doc" Segner, "Shirley" Miller and "Dick" Rovey of the City Dudes team spent yesterday afternoon in erecting the backstops.

The American Legion team sprung the surprise of the schedule last evening in defeating the City Dudes by a score of 10 to 4 in a fast seven inning game at the south field. Bill Pitney was in excellent form for the Legion and kept his hits well scattered. There were numerous spectacular plays throughout the game. "Dee" Austin, manager of the Legion, posted a home run in the fourth inning. In the sixth frame, Kehrt for the Legion singled to start the inning. Hilliker hit a hot line drive to short, which Lightner tackled, but the ball caromed off the ends of his fingers into the hands of Austin, who played short field. Austin whipped the ball to Bush at first for a circus double play. Kehrt, for the Dudes, reached into the air in the fifth inning while running at full speed and grabbed a line drive off Lightner's bat which had all the ear marks of a home run, thus stopping another onslaught. HOME RUN DECISIVE

The Outright Grocers went through a hard battle with the rejuvenated Grease Balls at the north side field. TRACK SEASON'S FINALE IS NEAR; LAST TWO MEETS

Grade Schools To End Work Friday, N. I. C. On Saturday

By DON HILLIKER

Two track meets this week end comprise the finale in Dixon high school sport events. On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock the annual grade school meet will take place on the north side high school field. In Mendota this Saturday Dixon's prep tracksters will defend their North Central Illinois Conference crown won last year.

The advance predictions as to the N. C. I. C. meeting point to a virtual duel between Dixon and Sterling. These outfits are the class of the league and will fight it out Saturday for the 1933 title. Mendota should place third with DeKalb drawing up last. The Barbs have enjoyed only a meager bit of competition this season, failing to enter the state district meet. The other members of the league, Belvidere and Rochelle are doubtful entries and probably will not cause much excitement.

The team that places in the championship circle will have to score close to 70 or 75 points. With Dixon and Sterling possessing the leading individuals a record number of points will be necessary to win. Last year Dixon won the honors with 58 points. Sterling had 49; DeKalb 27; Belvidere 20; and Mendota 11.

In the 100 yard dash Cooper, Snader and Thompson of Dixon and Johnson, Mendota are the likely contenders. The 220 yard dash will see Flanagan, Dixon; Terhune, Sterling and Walters, Mendota up toward the front. Stahl of Dixon should cop the quarter mile. Though he lost to Gebhardt of Sterling in a recent dual meet, the latter can give an excellent performance in this or the half mile. Ramsey will give plenty of competition in the 880 yard run as will Hussung, Sterling. Fred Padgett, a junior, is a sure bet in the mile run. After winning the Freeport district Padgett was barely nosed out of fifth place in the state finals. Balvin of Sterling is the probable winner of both hurdle races. His greatest resistance will come from Andrews and Johnson of Mendota and Fordham and Whitebread of Dixon.

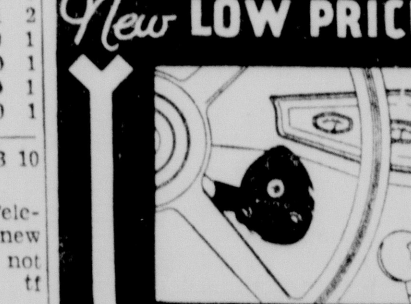

Strong of Dixon should take two firsts, the high jump and broad jump. However Shipman of DeKalb has hit 5 feet 10 inches in the high jump and may force the Dixon star out of the limelight. Capt. Preutz of Sterling is the leading shot putter. Weidman is a good choice for second. Praetz and Otten of Sterling have the best marks in the discus. However, if Daniels of Dixon manages to uncork one of his regular tosses and remains in the circle, it may be a different story. The pole vault will not reach any towering height but Beech, Underwood and Henry of Dixon, and Speer, Sterling are the best performers. Daniels should win the javelin throw and Underwood should be in the money also in this event. Dixon with a 134.2 relay race in the state finals to place sixth best in Illinois, is favored to retain its relay crown. Flanagan, Snader, Cooper and Strong should win easily unless some uncalled for action results.

The meet will start at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning with the preliminaries. The finals are to be run off at 2:30.

Do You Remember?

One Year Ago Today—Mrs. Helen Willis Moody and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, U. S. stars, won their way to the semi-finals of the French tennis championship matches.

Five Years Ago Today—The Cincinnati Reds retained the National League lead by blanking the Cards at St. Louis, 2-0.

Ten Years Ago Today—Lillie Bowmer, 17-year-old school girl swimmer, broke the women's 50 yard free-style record, splashing over the distance in 28 seconds at Honolulu.

220 yard low hurdles—12.5—Plozman, of Dixon, 1931.

High Jump—5 ft. 10 in.—Strong, of Dixon, 1932.

Discus—104 ft. 3 in.—Praetz, of Sterling, 1932.
Javelin Throw—163 ft. 11 in.—Salkowsky, of DeKalb, 1932.
Shot Put—44 ft. 9 in.—Praetz, of Sterling, 1932.
Half Mile Relay—1:38—Dixon (Condon, Talty, Strong, Ogan) 1932.

The only marks likely to remain as given above are the pole vault and javelin. Performances this season indicate that perhaps twelve new records will be established on Saturday.

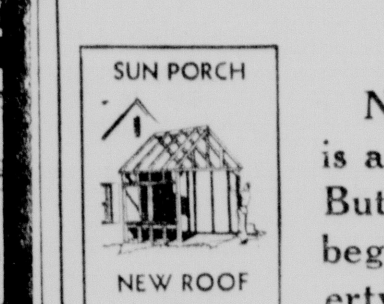

Over 100 entries have been turned in for the grade school track and field championships to be held Friday afternoon.

Events will be the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, high jump, pole vault, broad jump, shot put and quarter-mile relay.
Athletic Director A. C. Bowers will act as referee and starter of the 1933 meeting.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and mawk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
